Rob's Recommendations

When we were selecting wines for Longbow's list, it was so difficult to put all the wines on it I wanted. It is even more difficult to select just a few I would highly recommend to you based on my personal experiences. I have so many favourites.

These are wines I have known for many years, have met the vineyard owners, know the winemakers, and visited their properties. When we buy wines from these people, we know exactly that the wines will truly represent the terroir of their provenance as well as the skill and passion of the winemaker.

So, see a few of my all-time favourites below which also represent great value and quality from the list.

I hope you enjoy our selection of wines. If you want any advice on selecting a wine to go with your meal, please don't hesitate to ask one of our staff, they will be happy to assist.

Cheers!

Rob

Ferghettina Franciacorta Rosé 2017, £39.95
Lombardy, Italy (ABV 12.5%)

Made in the exact same way as Champagne and bursting with all the same class, charm and elegance, this beautiful sparkling wine is always a winner whatever the occasion. Time, care and attention to detail are what makes this sparkler so good

Cuvée Alexandre Rosé from Grimaud, £28.50
Saint Tropez, Provence (ABV 13.5%)

Pour a little Southern French sunshine into your glass, with possibly the best Provençal style rosé I know. Made for generations by the Val de Gilly family near gorgeous St Tropez, this drop of rosé is often sought out in the bars all along the coast. Santé!

Shadow Point 2019, £32.50
California, USA (ABV 13%)

This lush and richly flavoured Californian Chardonnay is incredible value. From the famous Monterey fishing region, the coastal climate and protection of the mountains creates a complex wine, with a roundness and depth aided by the addition of a lick of french oak. Pair with chicken and you will be California dreaming!

Côtes du Rhône Villages Les Coteaux, £28.50
Rhône Valley (ABV 13%)

This wine is sourced with the best grapes available and enriched with the likes of Sablet, Séguret and Cairanne. The result is a wine punching well above its weight which never fails to impress from start to finish
