

CORPORATE EVENTS

Heritage, reimagined

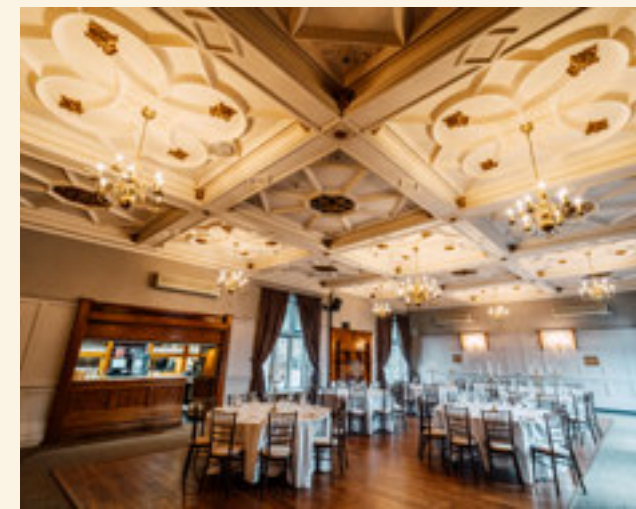

Longbow Venues offers exceptional corporate event spaces across three of our venues, each set in a stunning Peak District location. Just under an hour from Manchester, Sheffield, Derby and Nottingham, our venues combine convenience with the beauty of the countryside.

Each of our venues has its own personality and character, giving you the freedom to choose the perfect setting for your meeting, conference, or company retreat. From small day gatherings to large-scale overnight events, we provide the flexibility to meet your needs.

We are proud to support local from seasonal produce in our kitchens to craft ales and local wines in our bars, and our dedicated teams will ensure your event is seamless and memorable. For those staying overnight, you can enjoy exceptional dining, private wine tastings, guided walks or cycling adventures in the Peak District.

The Peak District provides the perfect backdrop for team building, networking and unforgettable corporate occasions.

The Maynard in Grindleford

Situated in The Maynard, the beautiful Chatsworth Suite is the perfect space for any corporate event. The licensed venue showcases original features and is ideal for hosting any occasion for up to 130 seated guests and 200 guests for a more informal gathering. This unique venue promises stunning views across the Hope Valley. The Chatsworth Suite houses its own entrance, bar, toilets, kitchen, and private gardens, ensuring exclusive access for you and your guests.

All menus can be tailored around you and your group. Our dedicated events team will assist you every step of the way to ensure everything runs smoothly on the day of your event. From conferences and meetings to award evenings and team-building, The Chatsworth Suite combines both space and equipment (including AV) to make your corporate event a success.

With 60 car parking spaces and accessible rail links between Manchester and Sheffield, The Maynard in Grindleford is the perfect place to venture to the countryside for a business retreat.

The George in Hathersage

With over 500 years of history, The George sits proudly in the heart of Hathersage village. Once a traditional coaching inn and even visited by Charlotte Brontë, the building still showcases its original oak beams and exposed stonework, now carefully blended with modern touches for today's guests.

Our meeting and event space, the Dragon's Den, can host anything from a small group of 4 to larger gatherings of up to 30, making it ideal for board meetings, workshops, or away days. Facilities include a projector, flipcharts, and ample parking, giving you everything you need for a smooth-running event in a fantastic setting.

During your event, enjoy delicious and seasonal food and drinks from our specially curated menus in relaxed surroundings. With its rich history and easy comfort, The George is a memorable spot for both work and downtime.
